Dear Mayor Khan,

My name is Henry. I recently visited your city, London, England, and I would like you to know how surprised I was at how clean and beautiful the city has become. On my last visit twenty years ago, the pollution was so terrible I had to stay inside the hotel during the day, and I could not exercise in the park. Now, the air is cleaner and easier to breathe. It was also great to see the dirty coal plant replaced with solar panels and wind turbines. I read in the newspaper that the city now gets 60% of its energy from renewable energy sources and will add another 20% by 2030. These changes make London more eco-friendly, and visitors like me notice the difference. My only suggestion to make the city more eco-friendly would be to reduce the use of natural gas for cooking.
