KENYA: Before walking through the door of a Kenyan house, it's important to take off your shoes. Make sure you wash your hands both before and after the meal. Like people in many African countries, Kenyan people eat with only their right hands during the meal.

CHINA: In China, remember to wait for the eldest person to sit down or begin eating before you do it. Chinese people use chopsticks to eat, and they often drink tea during meals. They think it is a bad habit to watch TV, use a phone, or do some other activities while having a meal.

GREECE: Usually, if a Greek person invites you over for a meal, you will sit in the middle of the table. You should not start eating until your host invites you. Once you begin, don't stop. Eating more food is a way to show the host that you enjoy the meal and make them happy.

36. You shouldn't go inside a house with your shoes on in Kenya.
 37. Kenyan people don't use their left hands to eat because they think they are unclean.
 38. While you are having a meal with a Chinese family, you should focus on eating.
 39. The Greek doesn't like it when you eat too much.
 40. In China and Greece, you can start eating when you want.
