CÁI RĂNG FLOATING MARKET

Can Tho is the biggest city in Mekong Delta in Vietnam. It is well-known for its famous tourist attractions, especially Cái Răng Floating Market. People sell things such as flowers, seasonal fruit, vegetables, food and many other things on boats. You are surprised by how lively and crowded this market is in the early morning. Although the market is open all day, its busiest time is from dawn until around 9 am.

In this market, local people have some ways to sell their products. Hanging their products on an upright pole called cây beo is the most interesting selling way. They display products on the pole, such as carrots, sweet potatoes, mangoes and watermelons. Tourists should try some local dishes here for breakfast. Some of the most popular dishes are com tấm and hủ tiếu,
